NEW YORK

FLOATING DERRICK COMPANY,

OFFICE, NO. 49 WILLIAM STREET,

Are prepared to undertake the raising of sunken Ships, Steamboats, or other Vessels, Locomotives, Coal Barges, or any other heavy bodies. Also, to hoist Boilers or other Machinery into or out of Steamers. Having hoisted four large Ships, eighteen Steamboats, one U. S. Revenue Cutter, with her armament on board, three Steam Dredges, fifty-five loaded Schooners and Sloops, three Brigs with a full cargo of heavy goods, full Coal Barges without number, two Locomotives, and all the heavy Boilers that have been put into Steamers built in this City since our organization, the Company feel great confidence in the ability of their Machines and in the skill of their Managers and employees, and will be responsible for their performing all duties assigned to them to the best of their ability, but not for any loss or damage caused by unforeseen accidents, unless a contract to that effect is entered into by their Agents.

May 1st, 1855.

S. CLIFT, President.

AND

ADVERTISING AGENCY,

APPLETON'S BUILDING,

NOS. 346 & 348 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Advertisements received for all Newspapers and Periodicals throughout the UNITED STATES AND CANADAS,

and inserted at the very lowest rates. The best Daily and Weekly Papers from every place of importance in the United States and British Provinces kept on file at our office for the inspection of Advertisers.

Subscriptions received for all Journals throughout the country. No advance payments required from responsible parties, and no bills presented to such, until their Advertisements have been inserted and exhibited to them.

Our arrangements are such with Publishers throughout the country, that we can Adbertise at the Lowest Rates Possible.

All who are desirous of advertising their business, are invited to call upon us and examine our facilities; and, as much depends upon a judicious selection of places and papers, to those who are unacquainted with the details of advertising the necessary information will be cheerfully given.
